New Gary Falati Neighborhood Park Opens

Fairfield, California (Tuesday, August 31, 2010)—The City of Fairfield will host an opening celebration of the Gary Falati Neighborhood Park in the Gold Ridge subdivision on Saturday, September 11, 2010 at 11:30 a.m. The park is located at 5100 Falati Lane, west of Peabody Road.

The park was named for former long-time Fairfield Mayor Gary Falati. Falati was raised in Fairfield, and served on Fairfield's City Council for 19 years, 16 of which he served as mayor.

The park features play areas for school age children and toddlers, a skate node and basketball half-court for older children, a water play area, picnic tables, and a shade structure.

The building of the park was made possible by the Gold Ridge residents voting to assess themselves annually as a way to ensure long-term funding for the maintenance of the park.
